PROPERTY SUMMARY

Description:

The Jasper Retreat offers an exceptional recreational and timberland investment opportunity located in Newton County, Arkansas, four (4) miles south of the community of Jasper. The property consists of 79.75± surveyed acres and is accessible from a deeded easement on a private gated road, off of County Road 46. Located on the southern central portion of the property is a cabin site that has been cleared out and offers incredible views to the north. The property offers a variety of topography features from mountainous to Spider Creek running through the northern and eastern portion of the property. The northern portion of the creek is seasonal, but the eastern portion of the creek is year round except during extreme drought conditions.

The property is a year-round getaway with recreational opportunities including hunting, fishing, hiking, mountain biking, and more either on the property or in close proximity. Hunting opportunities directly on the property include deer, turkey, bear, and squirrel. Additional hunting opportunities exist on the Buffalo River National Park and Ozark National Forest. The Buffalo River is only a few miles north of Jasper which is famous for floating and small mouth fishing. Boxley Valley, located near Ponca along Arkansas State Highways 43 & 21, is one of the best areas in the state to see elk.
